

A photograph of three men standing behind a black motorcycle parked on a dirt path. The man in the center is shirtless, wearing dark shorts and a red waistband with the word "adidas" visible. He has a serious expression. To his left is a man in a red short-sleeved button-down shirt and khaki shorts, also with a serious expression. To the right is a man in a blue polo shirt with a yellow collar and sleeve trim, and khaki pants. The motorcycle has a black seat with a small black box and a brown paper bag resting on it. The background is a building made of grey cinder blocks with a dark doorway. There are green plants and a palm frond to the right, and a pile of dry leaves on the ground.
